

LOTS

HOTS

AND VAMPIRES

(A SELECTION OF JOKES AND RIDDLES)

Why did the vampire fail the F literature exam?

Because he didn't have a reflection.

How do you kill a vampire using the Literature Program?

Drive a sharpened log through its heart.

What 's the difference between a vampire and a piece of Lit from the approved list?

One is undead and the other is unread.

Compare and contrast the Literature program and a vampire:

Contrast: One a horrible fiendish creation

Often viewed with fear and loathing, that leaves its victims drained of energy,

the other one is a vampire.

Compare:

- You can say for each of them, It is our worst nightmare. (or at least one of the worst)
- Many people say ‘It Sucks.’

Approved Literary pieces on the Vampyres’ HOTS blooded curriculum:

Count Dracula the Day Lost

Fang You, Ma’am

A Summer’s Bleeding

Ozymandias, Vampire Slayer

The Treasure of Vermillion -Brown

All My Zombies

Mr Bite–All (who else but an immortal fiend has enough money to buy such an expensive piece of jewelry to cover the blemishes on Mrs Ramsay’s neck.)

The Vampire Split by the Stake from a Cherry Tree

As I Grew 3000 years older

... ..

A Summer's Bleeding (synopsis)

George is walking home in the dead of night when he meets Mr Batanzara. He has fond memories of his old friend, who gave him frozen ices when he was a child and taught him to suck. Mr B is a change maker, which is of course a literary conceit: When the sun goes down, he changes into a fiend, and he also changes humans into vampires.

